

I believe we need more diversity in media reporting, not less. A vote to allow further consolidation of media outlets in a very few hands would leave the public with nothing but repetition of the same viewpoints across the board. The FCC should vote to support the public's interests, not those whose egos and pocketbooks demand more control over the media. On June 2, please vote for the public.